SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

August 7, 2022

Dear SPA Family,

Do you know what the word ‘parish’ means? ‘Parish’ [in Greek: paroikoi] is ‘a colony of newcomers.’ This is what the first Christians called their communities and thus expressed the awareness that they were ‘strangers’ here on earth and that they were on their way to heaven through their lives.

We could experience this truth in a special way when, on April 2, 2005, Archbishop Leonardo Sandri conveyed to the participants of the vigil in St. Peter, the news of the death of John Paul II. He then announced that at 9:37 pm ‘Our beloved Holy Father returned to the Father’s House.’

We are all pilgrims going to the Father’s House! Every Sunday at Holy Mass, confessing our faith in the Creed, we utter words that confirm this truth; I believe in the resurrection of the dead and eternal life in the world to come. Do I believe in eternal life? Do I confirm this faith not only with words, but also with my daily attitude and behavior? Does this truth have any impact on my life?

Today’s modern culture, supported by secular media, promote the belief that there is no eternal life; that there is no God, and even if there is, it still doesn’t matter; that there is no truth except the only truth that ‘there is no truth;’ that life on earth is fun; that the most important thing is pleasure, new experiences, satisfying all your needs and whims, the right to do ‘what your heart desires’ without taking into account the consequences, taking everything from life ‘here and now,’ because a person is an independent ‘master of his life’ and is on this earth ‘at home’ and is not ‘a stranger.’

However, God and the eternal life He offers us exist! And we are all pilgrims on their way to the Father’s House! Whoever hopes lives differently! Whoever believes in eternal life understands the exhortation: “Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach, nor moth destroy” (Lk 12:33). This is a call to use our lives wisely and prudently, seriously considering our destiny. It is a call to use things in an unselfish way, without the desire for possession or power, according to God’s logic, the logic of being sensitive to others, the logic of love. How radically different this logic is from the one proposed by some trends in modern secular culture. Whoever believes in eternal life finds meaning and joy in self-sacrifice for others.

It is a difficult path, but the only one that leads to true happiness here on earth and to eternal life in the world to come. The Gospel therefore invites us to detach ourselves from material goods and to fulfill our vocation faithfully, constantly striving towards what is above.

Let us be alert to receive Jesus readily when He comes in His glory - like the servants in the parable who await the Lord’s return. He says: “Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.” (Lk 12:37) His coming is our return to the Father’s Home, entering into eternal life. May faith in ‘life in the world to come’ make us stay alert and live an intense life, full of good deeds.

Have a blessed week,
Fr. Chris Ciaston

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

Among the many wonderful evangelization and catechetical ministries we have here at St Paul the Apostle, our RCIA program is perhaps the one most directly supporting the great mission of the Church - the building of God's Kingdom on Earth. Christ instituted the Church and gave us the Sacraments to be the vehicles for our pilgrim journey to his Kingdom in Heaven.

RCIA, or the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, is a journey of faith formation leading adult men and women into a deeper relationship with Christ - preparing them to come into full communion with his Church and receive the Sacraments of Initiation. So, RCIA is for those adults who are seeking to be baptized... as well as those already baptized in another Christian tradition who seek to be Catholic. It is also for those baptized Catholic adults who have not yet received, and desire to receive, the other Sacraments of Initiation: Confirmation and Eucharist.

As baptized Christians, we all share in this mission: to build up God's Kingdom on Earth. So, even if you, yourself, don't fall into one of these categories of people seeking full initiation and communion with the Catholic Church, it's likely you know people who do - your spouse or fiancé, your adult son or daughter, a parent, a sibling, a friend or neighbor, a coworker or classmate. Most people who have gone through RCIA and are now active members of our faith community were led to RCIA by a trusted Catholic in their lives.

And, so, we appeal to you to boldly approach each and every person you know who might benefit from joining our RCIA program:

1. Tell them what being a practicing Catholic and participating in the Sacraments means to you.
2. Invite them to consider exploring RCIA at St Paul.
3. Hand them a bulletin or show them our website with our contact information.
4. Then have them email Deacon Bob directly at deaconbob@saintpaultheapostle.church) to request more information about RCIA and how to register.

Our weekly classes will begin in late September... and will run until April 8, 2023 when the Sacraments of Initiation will be celebrated at the Great Easter Vigil. Please do your part now to fill our church with new and renewed Catholics... as we rejoice together with them as the Kingdom of God... his pilgrim Church on Earth!
