

Saint Paul
the Apostle

The apostles
said to the Lord,
“Increase our faith.”

Luke 17:5

TWENTY-SEVENTH
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 2, 2022

Dear SPA Family,

Probably many of us have experienced a situation when the light suddenly went out during a thunderstorm - a longer or shorter power outage makes us realize that even a tiny flame of a candle flickering in the dark is enough to illuminate a dark place. A small flame of a candle makes the darkness less terrible; that although we cannot see clearly, we can still see the outline of the objects around us, and this allows us to move around in a dark place more easily.

There are situations in our lives when we, together with the apostles, want to cry out aloud: 'Lord, increase our faiths.' When we struggle with our weaknesses, diseases, ambition, unemployment - we want to cry out: 'Lord, increase our faith!' Lord, give us faith, because it's hard to understand why my life is this way?

During the Holy Mass in St. Peter in Rome, Pope Francis canonized Mother Teresa of Calcutta, founder of the Congregation of the Missionaries of Charity, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979. During her lifetime, Saint of Calcutta wrote in one letter to her spiritual director:

"If I am ever a saint, I will certainly be a saint of 'darkness.' I will be absent all the time in heaven - to give light to those who are in darkness on earth." For many years she lived in the terrible darkness of faith – but then she started loving God so much that she devoted her whole life and herself entirely to the service of Him and other people.

The one who devoted herself entirely to God, as she describes herself, suddenly stopped seeing and experiencing Him. How do we know about this? From her letters to bishops and spiritual directors, in which she described her interior life.

Nevertheless, everybody who saw her deeds, her work and commitment to the poorest, abandoned, sick, crippled, rejected and cursed by society, had no doubt that Mother Teresa of Calcutta is a saint, living in communion - in intimacy with God. Although she did not see Him, although her heart did not feel His closeness, no one had any doubts that He was with her and supported her.

Faith is trusting in God in everything, although it is sometimes difficult. Jesus does not rebuke his disciples for asking him for greater faith, but He gives hope that even 'faith as small as a mustard seed' can work a miracle - change life.

Just as the smallest, faintest flame of a barely smoldering candle can dispel darkness, so even 'the smallest faith' can give hope. Together with Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta and the apostles, let us cry out: 'Lord, increase our faith!'

Have a blessed week,
Fr. Chris Ciastoń

ANIMAL BLESSING

IN CELEBRATION OF THE FEAST OF SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI, DEACON MIKE WILL BLESS PETS AND ANIMALS OF EVERY KIND ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2, AT 1:30PM ON THE WEST SIDE OF THE CHURCH.

Teen Choir

Saint Paul's Teen Choir is seeking singers and instrumentalists ages 13 - 18 to sing and play at the Sunday 5:00pm Mass.

Rehearsals are at 4:00pm every Sunday afternoon and service hours can be earned through regular participation.

Please contact Tom Wattlelet for more details.

TWattlelet@saintpaultheapostle.church

Following the 11:30 AM Mass on October 9th, Fr. Joe will make himself available to gather informally with any and all adults who might be interested. The overall theme of this time together might be put this way:

“What I always wanted to ask someone about our Catholic faith or the Church or the Sacraments, but haven’t had a chance?”

This can be an inquiry for your own faith enrichment or simply to get a better understanding of the Church, past and present, and its teachings or practices.

Fr. Joe will gather topics or questions at the beginning of the session. Though not an expert, he’ll do his best.

If we run out of questions/topics, Fr. Joe always enjoys conversation about one of the most popular topics over the 53+ years in the priesthood:

- Bridging older generation Catholics [before the II Vatican Council in the 1960’s] and newer generation Catholics [after the II Vatican Council (1970’s & beyond)].
- Why was Vatican Council II called into session anyway?
- What dramatic changes and opportunities occurred, essential for the message of Jesus and mission of the Church in the modern world?

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH

THE MASS

A FIVE-PART BIBLE STUDY FEATURING DR. EDWARD SRI

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY

A 9-week course called "A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS" is on Wednesdays for morning (9:30-11am) and evening (6:30-8pm) groups. Using the book and video lectures by Dr. Edward Sri, we will learn how much of our Mass is rooted in the OT and NT scriptures, from the beginning sign of the cross, to the ending, thanks be to God! Seeing the Mass through this Biblical lens will help us grasp the reality of what God is doing in our souls through the Liturgy, and help us encounter Him more deeply in these mysteries. We meet in Room 32 behind the kitchen (9:30am) at the Parish House (6:30pm) for the evenings. Please REGISTER ONLINE on our website as soon as possible (for # of books needed), but pay for the book $15 at the first class. Any questions, please call Barbara Wagner at (847) 767 - 1202 or email barbarawagner25@earthlink.net for questions.
