THIRTY-THIRD
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 13, 2022

Dear SPA Family,

Afflictions, adversities and persecution will not bypass anyone. Sooner or later they will come. They are embedded in Christian life. They often put faith to the test. Like earthquakes and floods, all structures are put to the test: bridges, buildings; yes, and the 'turbulent' events in life test the truth of faith. It is only in these extreme situations that you can see how a person builds his life, what 'materials' he uses for it, and on what projects he bases his life.

Many people think that adversity is painful and afflictions can destroy a person, but only when a person succumbs to them, if he submits to them, if he follows their promptings.

They were married for a long time. When their daughter was born, they began to drift apart. They were both delighted and crazy about the child. Each dragged her to his or her side. One could not stand it... there was a betrayal. In the end, they stopped fighting for marriage. They say today that marriage ruined their lives. A priest fell in love with a teacher. He gave up the priesthood for her. People said: he was so pious, how is that possible? When the woman got to know him better, she saw what he was like every day, she rejected him. Today he says that his life has been smashed, that he has run out of perseverance.

It is true that tribulations are tough tests of endurance, that they crush us to the ground, but cannot destroy God's life in us, that is, the immortal soul. This is what Jesus reminds us of when he announces the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem, which was one of the wonders of the world. It was built of huge, white, hewn stones, it was richly equipped. It was also a sign of the unity of the generations that have come and gone throughout history. It was the only temple of true God on earth. And behold, this temple, rich in splendor, fell into ruins, turned into a pile of unusable stones. Jesus consciously contrasts the announcement of the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem with the indestructible temple that we are ourselves. He wanted to emphasize that people, filled with God's grace and destined for eternal life, are indestructible temples.

No persecution or adversity can destroy God's temple in us. That is why Christ encourages and promises to help the disciples: 'But you will not lose a hair of your head'. These words are full of confidence. Jesus encourages his disciples not to worry even when they are brought up against a wall, dragged before the courts, persecuted by friends or relatives, becoming an object of hatred for all. He will watch over the disciples, and if they must lose life for His name, they will gain it in eternity.

Although Christ began His word to his disciples rather pessimistically: 'They will lift up their hands on you and persecute you... they will deliver you to synagogues and prisons... because of my name you will be hated by all'. However, despite these warnings, the disciples did not get scared and began to change the world with Christ. They saw adversity as 'an opportunity to bear witness'. Through their perseverance, they showed the way to eternal life. They made us realize that we can't be a paper Christian, trembling over little things, withdrawing when confessing can get in trouble. Victory in life is when one is not overcome by adversities, when one keeps steadfastly faithful to Christ, trusting in Him despite raging tribulations and adversities.

Have a blessed week, Fr. Chris Ciastoń

CATHOLIC CHARITIES CHRISTMAS GIFT PROGRAM

The Catholic Charities Christmas Gift Program tags are in the gathering space this weekend and following weekends until they are all gone.

For those new to the parish and/or this program, one selects a tag, purchases a NEW gift (or gifts) for the person. Wrap the gift(s) and attach the tag with the name and CSP# showing, or write the name and CSP# on each gift for that person. Gifts are due back at the church ON OR BEFORE Dec 3/4 by 12pm on Sunday.

Immediately after the 11:30 mass on 12/4, we need help sorting all of the gifts by family, bagging them and loading them on to trucks. (Thank you Bekins Lake County movers for donating the trucks and drivers again this year!)

On Monday-Wednesday, Dec 5-7, we need volunteers to help check all of the bags at the warehouse.

If you have any questions or need more information, see Nancy Payonk or Carol Zimmer after all the masses.

GRIEF JOURNEY MINISTRY

"Kind words are short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless."
-Mother Teresa

Grief is a personal process; it's intimate and unique to all of us. We all grieve in our own way, and for most, experiencing grief is indeed a challenge. If you would like to share your story, or just sit quietly and listen to others tell theirs, please let us hear from you. You are sure to hear kind words that will echo in your heart and mind for a long time.

Our next gathering is in the church on Wednesday, November 16th at 1pm. At that time we will discuss the time and day of the week that works best. For more information call or email Barbara Kapple at 847-212-9951, barbarakapple15@gmail.com

All is confidential; facilitated by a professional counselor
